

A creative break. A new connection.

Artist-led group workshops for student communities, campus events and wellbeing programmes.

An Artivian Sumi-e workshop at Burghley House.

Choose your experience

Sumi-e

Explore ink, brushwork and simple forms in a calm, guided session.

Watercolour

Experiment with colour and washes, with room for individual expression.

A series for your community

Build on one session with a sequence of creative activities across the term.

Designed around your group

For Students' Unions, student experience teams, halls and postgraduate communities.

No experience needed

Clear demonstrations, materials and supportive guidance from artist-tutor Jurga Vilimaite.

Flexible campus delivery

60- or 90-minute painting sessions are a useful starting point. Ask about a one-off event or term programme.

Easy to organise

Provide a suitable room, tables and chairs. We confirm access, setup, room needs and the group fee in your proposal.

Bring a creative session to campus

Send your preferred date, campus, group size and budget.
